THE ELEMENTARY TRAVELING TROPHIES!

This week, the Golden Pineapple Award shines brightly on three incredible educators who have stepped into the amazing and left a trail of inspiration in their wake. Whether it's the unwavering positivity that lights up even the rainiest of Mondays, the quiet resilience that turns challenges into stepping stones, or the gentle strength that reminds us patience is more than a virtue—it's a teaching superpower—each of these staff members brings something extraordinary to our community. They show up, lift up, and level up. And let's be honest—if pineapple power were a fuel source, these three could run the whole school on joy alone.
